Farah & Farah Joins Forces with River City Wrestling Con as Presenting Sponsor

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – Farah & Farah, St. Augustine's leading personal injury law firm, is teaming up with Northeast Florida's first pro wrestling fan convention to showcase the area as a premiere entertainment destination. The law firm will serve as a presenting sponsor of River City Wrestling Con, which will be held at World Golf Village Renaissance Resort in St. Augustine on June 8-9.

“We’re happy to support River City Wrestling Con, which has been a popular event for individuals and families throughout our community,” said Eddie Farah, Founding Partner of Farah & Farah. “This partnership exemplifies our ongoing commitment to supporting initiatives that bring a spirit of adventure and camaraderie to the region.”

The collaboration promises to elevate the event experience and enforce the law firm’s commitment to providing memorable family moments for attendees. River City Wrestling Con has experienced such significant attendance growth that it is moving from its previous venue in Jacksonville to World Golf Village in St. Augustine.

Using the spectacle of pro wrestling as its key ingredient, the event showcases the culture of sports and entertainment while providing a variety of activities for guests. It offers a family-friendly fun atmosphere with experiences such as celebrity meet-and-greets, panels, and of course - the main event: wrestling matches.
